The Catholic School Principal – Job Description

The Catholic School Principal is the chief administrator and facilitator of the Catholic School. Under the direction of the Pastor or School President, the Catholic School Principal is responsible for supporting the Archdiocese of Mobile in its mission to accept the challenge to participate in Jesus' teaching mission by offering opportunities for active faith life, providing quality educational programs, promoting the growth and development of the whole person, accepting diversity of all people, while sharing the learning experience with parents as active partners.

Catholic School Principals will:

- Recognize and support the unique Catholic mission of the Archdiocese of Mobile by speaking, acting, and instructing consistently with the teachings of the Catholic Church; a Catholic school principal will not espouse any doctrine inconsistent with the teachings of the Catholic Church.
- Foster intellectual and spiritual development of staff and students by teaching and acting in accordance with the mission, philosophy, objectives and policies of this Catholic school.
- Strive to model the teachings of Jesus in attitude and example.
- Plan and participate in faculty meetings, parent conferences, school programs, assemblies, liturgies, religious activities as indicated on the school calendar.
- Be trained in the Archdiocesan Child Protection Program and renew annually.
- Adhere to directives and policies of the Archdiocese and the Department of Catholic Education.
- Follow all policies stated in the local faculty and student handbooks.
- Recruit and hire qualified, dedicated teachers and staff; once hired, supervise and evaluate regularly.
- Monitor academic plans that follow the prescribed curriculum that includes appropriate activities to ensure that academic progress is occurring.
- Evaluate student and program growth by following Department of Catholic Education's student assessment programs and practices.
- Provide staff development opportunities to support faculty in fostering academic growth.
- Maintain and participate in the SACS district accreditation process.
- Maintain an accurate record keeping system for financial, student and employee records.
- Stay current with educational research, and participate in professional development.
- Maintain a clean environment and oversee buildings and grounds.
- Establish consistent rules and routines, and discipline program in order to provide a safe learning environment for the school community.
- Meet established safety standards by scheduling regular fire, lockdown and weather drills.
- Maintain optimal relations in a professional and collegial manner with all students, faculty, staff, parents, the superintendent, pastor and school community.
- Dress in accordance with professional standards.
- Prepare the annual school budget with the Pastor or School President and the School Advisory Committee.
- Report regularly to the Pastor or School President and School Advisory Committee regarding progress of the school.
- Serves the School Advisory Committee as the executive secretary, by submitting agendas, and attending scheduled meetings.
- Direct student recruitment efforts, participate in long range planning, and support development/marketing plans.
- Accept additional duties as assigned by the Pastor or School President.
- Complete all assigned duties and obligations before closing the school year.

ADDENDUM TO APPLICATION FOR EMPLOYMENT OF PRINCIPAL

Please answer the questions below.

1. Why do you want to be an administrator in a Catholic School?
2. Would you go to school to further your education?
3. What gifts of a Catholic School administrator will you bring? Please explain.
4. What do you perceive as the responsibilities most challenging to you as Catholic school administrator?
5. How many years would you be willing to spend in Catholic school administration?

Lifestyle Expectations Based Upon Catholic Beliefs

It is our faith that life is a gift from God which we are called to respect from conception to natural death. We believe that God creates people in his own image as male and female. He has instituted marriage as a life long covenant relationship between one man and one woman and calls husbands and wives to exclusive sexual fidelity. We believe that sexual relations outside of marriage are inconsistent with God's call to holiness in our lives. We believe that anything that separates the conjugal act from procreation (for example, in vitro fertilization) is inconsistent with the dignity of human sexuality. We further believe that pornographic material undermines the dignity and image of God in individuals and promotes sexual conduct contrary to our Catholic beliefs.

We require all who serve in the Archdiocese of Mobile to live in accord with our beliefs regarding human life, sexuality and marriage. Some may not affirm their agreement with our beliefs regarding human life, sexuality and marriage, and they are not required to affirm our beliefs if contrary to their own conscience, but all who serve in the Archdiocese of Mobile are required to live in accord with our beliefs regarding human life, sexuality and marriage and to do nothing to undermine, subvert or contradict our beliefs.
